Pastor Mike Pietsch is the university chaplain working with Blueprint Ministries for all Lutheran tertiary students (and friends) in South Australia. Pastor Mike has been a chaplain for more than 20 years and can be contacted at any time (24/7). He is available to meet with students on their particular campus or at a convenient place for a coffee and chat. He welcomes all types of questions or ideas and is there for you if you or a friend have any spiritual or pastoral concerns, small or large. Moving to the city? Speak to Pastor Mike about help finding accommodation.

Student and Chaplaincy Support

Flinders University

Pastor Mike is on campus each Tuesday during term time. You can find him either in Oasis (the religious centre) or in The Tavern (in The Hub). He is also very happy to meet up at a cafe around the campus for a coffee and chat or on any other day of the week.

Adelaide University

Two Bible studies happen every Wednesday during term: 12noon-1pm and 1pm-2pm on level 8 in the Hughes Building.

Pastor Fraser Pearce is the chaplain to Adelaide University, and can be contacted at fraser.pearce@lca.org.au.

Pastor Mike is at the North Terrace Campus on the Wednesday or any other day that might suit you.

University of South Australia

Pastor Mike meets with students on all of the four UniSA campuses across Adelaide: City West, City East, Magill and Mawson Lakes. He can meet with you at any time or any day for a coffee and a chat at one of the many cafes on the campuses, or at any other suitable location or time.
